COMPLAINT

The Plaintiff property was taken out of the Plaintiff apartment at 50 Small Street Apartment 17 Napier Field, Alabama 36303. The Dale County Sheriff Department removed the Plaintiff property from 50 Small Street Apartment 17 Napier Field, Alabama 36303 on August 12, 2011. The Dale County Sheriff Department Unlawfully removed the Plaintiff property under the Alabama Code Evection Law. The Alabama Evection Law states that the Alabama Sheriff Department must not delay in service of writ of possession on a resident. The Dale County Sheriff Department was sent the Order for writ of possession on July 11, 2011 allowing the writ of possession to delay 31 days after receiving the writ of possession. The Middle District Court in 1985 order that the Alabama Sheriff Department take special care of eviction writ of possession in allowing the tenants to be able to contact the Alabama Sheriff Department within seven days to discuss the tenant property from not being removed before any property can be removed from the tenant resident. The Defendant did not allow the Plaintiff any time to contact the Dale County Sheriff Department within the seven days stated on the writ of possession to contact the Dale County Sheriff Department. Due the Plaintiff due process error of Civil Rule of Procedure not being use because of the error made the Dale County Sherriff Department is held responsible for not allowing the due process rights of the Plaintiff to be successful in working. And because the Defendant processes the writ of Possession with delay the Plaintiff is seeking damages.

ADMINISTRATIVE RESPONSIBILITY ERROR

The Defendant on August 12, 2011. Belongings were taken from the property the Plaintiff rented. The Plaintiff was out of town when coming back the Plaintiff had no belongings inside the Plaintiff's residence. The Defendant had no rights to have taken the Plaintiff's property out of the residence at 50 Small Street Apartment 17 Napier Field, Alabama 36303. The Circuit Court denied signing the document and giving the document to the Defendant. The Circuit Court ordered a stay of the Plaintiff and no person could take the property of the Plaintiff. The Defendant had no rights to the documents from the Circuit Court of Dale County in Ozark, Alabama without checking to know if the Plaintiff's case was at the appeal level. The appeal level does not allow the Defendant to have any rights to others' property.

JURISDICTION

The Plaintiff's residence is in the jurisdiction of the state of Missouri; the Defendant is not a resident. The Plaintiff is filing against the Defendant as the complainant who is living in the state the complaint is filed where the Plaintiff lives.

DAMAGES

The Plaintiff's damages come from the total amount of property which was taken from the Plaintiff's residence. Also the amount of punitive and compensation damages the Defendant owes to the Plaintiff because of the selfish behavior of how the property was removed without following the guidelines to allow the Plaintiff to her day in court before the Circuit Court Judge

DAMAGES

The Plaintiff damages are $230,000,00.00 for the problems the defendants have cause the Plaintiff the lose of the Plaintiff property without the permission of the Plaintiff or without a legal document with information and resources adopted by the legal system to allow the property to be taken by use of crawling inside of the front window of the apartment, The screen pulled back and the window open by force by the entrance front window. The Plaintiff documents to not have property not taken was clearly stated in a Court Order signed by the legal system judge with a warning not to take any property and if any property taken should be put back the defendant dismissed the Order of a legal system judge and followed their false documents in hand that had no legal barring at the time and after the date of the removal of the Plaintiff property loss. The items lost were designer clothing the Plaintiff design under the name of MAT wear published marking belonging to the Plaintiff the damages amount more than seventy-five percent of the damages is for loss of designer clothing and personal items inside of the rented property. The twenty-five percent are punitive damages and compensation damages for the suffering of lose of the Plaintiff property and time spent to go before the court to fight for the order not to remove any of the property belongings of the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff prays for all the defendants to be punished under the laws allowed for the behavior of the Plaintiff United States Constitution.
